

Axios Incorporated

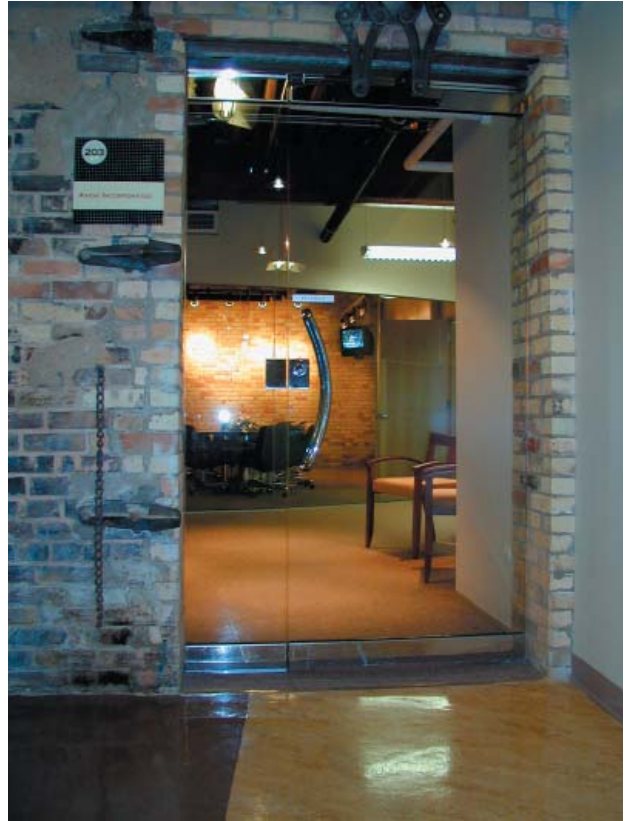

Grand Rapids, Michigan

data

- completed: September 1999
- building area: 2,483 s.f.
- general contractor: D & D Building, Inc.
- delivery method: design-build
- cost: $100,000

sitting area

entry

office

conference room

summary

Axios Incorporated decided to relocate into a downtown loft space. The move provided the opportunity to restructure the physical organization of the office as well as to refine the corporate image. The design challenges included developing an open feeling while meeting the privacy needs of high level management. The project demanded meeting an extremely aggressive project schedule while working within budget constraints.