

A.M.D.G. Approach to Green

summary

Three areas that drive green design at AMDG are a commitment to caring for community, a commitment to designing healthy environments, and a commitment to investing wisely. Where these commitments overlap, a green building has the greatest potential for impact. Our aim is to find the sweet spot, where our commitment to people, the environment, and investing wisely, strategically overlap.