

Title: Senior Project Architect/BIM Specialist

Overview: Seeking an Architect with a great passion for Construction documentation and Revit/BIM. This position would comprise a blended role (50/50) between project architect and BIM Specialist. Support a growing team of architects and designers in; developing BIM standards, leveraging BIM in project delivery, facilitating interaction with outside consultants/firms, curating internal resources to improve efficiency, and growing team members' proficiency. Lead in the development of construction documents in the project architect role on a variety of project types.

Responsibilities:

- Creating and maintain in-house BIM standards and documentation
- Maintain Revit template
- Internal Revit training
- End user support/troubleshooting
- Support Revit project teams and modeling best practices
- Audit and maintain health of Revit models
- Export models in various formats for other disciplines/firms
- Develop and maintain Revit content libraries
- Archive project models at key milestones
- Navisworks clash detection/model coordination
- Investigate and test Revit addons

Knowledge/Skills/Abilities

- Strong communicator and team player / collaborative attitude
- Technical ability in executing details in coherence to design intent
- Strong technical and design architectural skills
- Ability to plan and manage a comprehensive set of construction documents, including coordination of consultant work and specification preparation
- Ability to work well with clients, consultants, and AMDG team members on multiple projects
- Ability to deliver the mission of AMDG and a strong desire to learn and grow
- Software knowledge required
 - Revit/Sketchup
- Software knowledge preferred
 - SpecLink/Bluebeam/BIM360/Adobe CC/MS Office

Education/Experience required

- 8-12 years of relative architectural work experience preferred
- Significant project experience in construction documentation and Revit/BIM
- Experience in the field during construction administration
- Master of architecture professional degree
- Registered architect preferred

Send resumes, references, links to portfolio, and compensation requirements to blamfers@amdgarchitects.com